5 of 5 review helpful Caffeinated Gita By The God of the Gaps This translation from Raphael has a very interesting commentary that s clean of Hippy and even Christian baggage In my opinion this is probably the best commentary by a Westerner I have come across and it uses proper Sanskrit words instead of Christian words I like the way Raphael doesn't comment after each sloka rather at the end of ea The Bhagavadgita belongs to the VI book of the Mahabharata the great Indian epic attributed to the legendary Vyasa It is a poetic and philosophical work which in time is placed in the V century B C Together with the Brahmasutra and the classical Upanisads it constitutes the Prasthanatraya the Threefold Science of Vedanta The Bhagavadgita came to light in a moment of both contrasts and new inner requirements of the Indian people It contributed to the vitality of the About the Author VYASA is the Rsi who ordered the texts of the Vedas the Mahabharata and the Puranas Vyasa is also the fourth member of the Rsi Parampara of the Advaita Vedanta Guru Parampara of which Adi Shankara is the codifier RAPHAEL Asram Vidya Order i
