problems concerning matters such as Contemporary Indian Philosophy:

Contemporary Indian Philosophy has arisen in awareness of the need to reconcile the forces of tradition with those of modernity. It is not merely repetitive. It develops under the conviction that the basic aim of Philosophy is to cultivate a world view. This requires an awareness of the existential condition of life as also the consciousness of life's ultimate ideal viz redemption not only of the individual but of the total human race. It emphasises the ultimacy of This work is a good survey of the thinkers presented. The author has given a good account of each and a brief bibliography for each at the end of the book. The volume could serve as a good introductory text for a course on modern Indian thought and is recommended.
