This collection of essays provides the specialist and also the layman interested in philosophy with examples of the best philosophical work being done in India today. Indologists and Sanskrit scholars have for generations had access to Indian expositions of ancient texts. Rather less has been known about what is being done in fields of recent and current interest. Indian philosophers today are part of a worldwide community of scholars as concerned with technical logic. About the Author: Margaret Chatterjee taught philosophy in Delhi University. Later she became a Professor of Comparative Religion at Visva Bharati University, Santiniketan. Visiting Professor at Drew University and Director of the Indian Institute of Advanced Study.
